by Betley, Matthew

Logan West and John Quick are sent to Dutch Harbor, Alaska, to investigate the possible presence of a Russian black ops team on a mission to steal US next generation technology. The resulting violent confrontation triggers a global search for the stolen technology and threatens to pit the US against China in a looming shadow war and technology race. As Logan and John, joined by the chief of the CIA's Special Operations Group, Cole Matthews, battle their way through Spain, the Mediterranean, and ultimately, across Sudan, an imminent threat arises at home.

Shattered : A Max Revere Novel

by Brennan, Allison

In this crossover novel, investigative reporter Max Revere teams up with FBI agent Lucy Kincaid to exonerate a woman accused of murdering her son. An old friend approaches investigative reporter Max Revere, pleading for help. His wife has been arrested for their son's murder and is in jail pending trial. He believes she's innocent, and he's found three cases over the span of 20 years that are eerily similar - in fact, almost identical - to his son's death. In each case, a young boy was kidnapped from his bedroom, suffocated, and buried in a shallow grave. The last thing the defence wants is for Max to get in the way.

A Hiss Before Dying : A Mrs. Murphy Mystery

by Brown, Rita Mae

Autumn is in the air in the Blue Ridge Mountain community of Crozet, Virginia and all the traditions of the changing seasons are underway. But the last thing the local beaglers and their hounds expect to flush out is a dead body. Disturbingly, it's the second corpse to turn up (after that of a missing truck driver) too disfigured to identify. The deaths seem unrelated until Harry picks up a trail of clues dating back to the state's post-Revolutionary past. The echoes of the Shot Heard Round the World pale in comparison to the dangerous shootout Harry narrowly escapes unscathed.

Seeing Red

by Brown, Sandra

Kerra Bailey is a TV journalist hot on the trail of a story guaranteed to skyrocket her career to new heights. Twenty-five years ago, Major Franklin Trapper became a national icon when he was photographed leading a handful of survivors to safety after the bombing of a Dallas hotel. For years, he gave frequent speeches and interviews but then suddenly dropped out of the public eye, shunning all media. Now Kerra is willing to use any means necessary to get an exclusive with the Major even if she has to secure an introduction from his estranged son, former ATF agent John Trapper.

Blackmail

by Campbell, Rick

A surprise attack leaves the U.S. in an impossible bind: respond with a weakened military or risk disaster on a global scale. With the U.S. Pacific Fleet severely weakened, the Russian President initiates a bold plan to rebuild the old Soviet Union. In one swift strike, the Russian army moves to reoccupy a large number of the industrialized areas of the former USSR, while blockading much of the world's oil and natural gas supply. To make matters worse, Russia's Special Forces have wired every major oil and natural gas pipeline with explosives. If the U.S. moves to thwart Russia, they'll destroy them all. Torn between the unthinkable and the impossible, there is only one possible move to launch an attack on all fronts, simultaneously.

The Silent Sister

by Chamberlain, Diane

Scott Fitzgerald that had been stolen from the library at Princeton University. Mercer is employed to befriend Bruce Cable, a bookstore owner believed to be in possession of the manuscripts.

The Rooster Bar

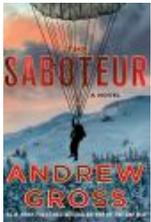

by Grisham, John

Mark, Todd, and Zola came to law school to change the world, to make it a better place. But now, as third-year students, these close friends realize they have been duped. They all borrowed heavily to attend a third-tier, for-profit law school so mediocre that its graduates rarely pass the bar exam, let alone get good jobs. And when they learn that their school is one of a chain owned by a shady New York hedge fund operator who also happens to own a bank specializing in student loans, the three know they have been caught up in The Great Law School Scam. But maybe there's a way out.

The Saboteur

by Gross, Andrew

February, 1943. Both the Allies and the Nazis are closing in on attempts to construct the decisive weapon of the war. Kurt Nordstrum, an engineer in Oslo, puts his life aside to take up arms against the Germans as part of the Norwegian resistance. After the loss of his fiancée, his outfit whittled to shreds, he commandeers a coastal steamer and escapes to England to transmit secret evidence of the Nazis' progress towards an atomic bomb at an isolated factory in Norway. There, he joins a team of dedicated Norwegians in training in the Scottish Highlands for a mission to disrupt the Nazis' plans before they advance any further.

The Dry

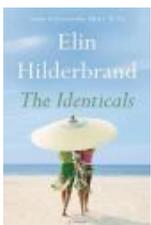

by Harper, Jane

Federal Agent Aaron Falk hasn't been back to the place where he grew up in twenty years. Not since he and his father were run out of town. Even when Falk gets word that his childhood best friend, Luke, is dead, his entire family murdered, Falk still isn't planning on going back. But then he gets a note: "Luke lied. You lied. Be at the funeral." And just like that, Falk is swept back into the secrets of the place and people he left so long ago.

The Identicals

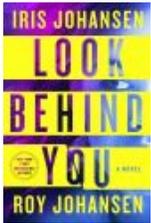

by Hilderbrand, Elin

Nantucket is only two and a half hours away from Martha's Vineyard by ferry. But the two islands might as well be worlds apart for a set of identical twin sisters who have been at odds for years. Just because twins look exactly the same doesn't mean they're anything alike and Tabitha and Harper Frost have spent their whole lives trying to prove this point. When a family crisis forces them to band together (or at least appear to), the twins come to realize that the special bond that they share is more important than the resentments that have driven them apart.

Dark in Death

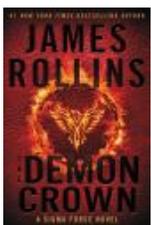

by Robb, J. D.

On a chilly February night, during a screening of Psycho in midtown, someone sunk an ice pick into the back of Chanel Rylan's neck, then disappeared quietly into the crowds of drunks and tourists in Times Square. To Chanel's best friend, who had just slipped out of the theater for a moment to take a call, it felt as unreal as the ancient black and white movie up on the screen. But Chanel's blood ran red, and her death was anything but fictional. Then, as Eve Dallas puzzles over a homicide that seems carefully planned and yet oddly personal, she receives a tip from an unexpected source: an author of police thrillers who recognizes the crime from the pages of her own book.

The Demon Crown

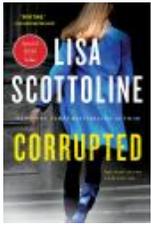

by Rollins, James

A construction project beneath the National Mall unearths a terrifying secret dating back to the Civil War. It is a cache of bones preserved in amber and buried more than a century ago by a cabal of scientists to protect humankind. The scientists, led by Alexander Graham Bell, who helped found the Smithsonian Institution, were safeguarding a wonder like no other: the very secret of life after death. But this prize is linked to a horror from the ancient past, a horror that has remained dormant yet all too frighteningly alive in the marrow of those bones.

Fade to Black

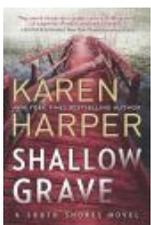

by Graham, Heather

Starring in a cult TV show was a blessing for Marnie Davante, especially now that her former fame could support her future dream of starting a children's theater. So she'll work the convention circuit. But then a costar is brazenly murdered in front of her by a killer who vanishes into thin air with seemingly inhuman skill.

Shallow Grave

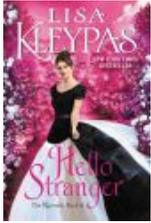

by Harper, Karen

It's been four months since forensic psychologist Claire Britten last crossed paths with danger. Finally feeling she can catch her breath, together with her partner, criminal lawyer Nick Markwood, Claire has settled into a new role, volunteering with a support group for children stressed by domestic violence. But a leisurely field trip to a wildlife sanctuary turns deadly, leaving Claire to question whether the death was an accident, suicide, or something far more sinister. Nick gets the South Shores team on the case, hunting down anyone with a potential grudge against the sanctuary.

Hello Stranger : The Ravenels

Dune Drive

by Stewart, Mariah

Always believing she was an ugly duckling, Chrissy Jenkins thought she had finally turned into a swan when her real-life Prince Charming swept her off her feet. But as his true character began to crack his perfect facade, Chrissy realized that not only was she better off without him, but that she was the only one who had the power to transform her life.

Amish Brides

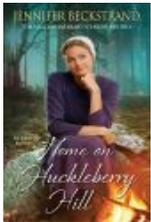

by Beckstrand, Jennifer

Spirited Suvie Newswenger has three marriage proposals, but not from the man she truly loves. No matter how lonely widower Aaron Beachy is, he seems determined to stay that way forever. Now, with help from his matchmaking great-grandparents, Suvie will do whatever it takes to rekindle Aaron's hope and spark happiness for a lifetime.

Home on Huckleberry Hill

by Beckstrand, Jennifer

Mary Anne Neuenschwander knows she should be content with what Gotte has given her. She has a comfortable house, a fruitful farm, and a good, steady husband. But after nearly six years of marriage, she still longs for a baby. Yet her husband, Jethro, seems to care more about fishing than about his wife. Unable to bear Jethro's indifference, Mary Anne moves into a tent in the woods where he won't have to be bothered. But when her mammi and dawdi find out what she's done, they'll stop at nothing, including a little camping trip of their own, to help save their granddaughter's marriage.

The Healing Quilt

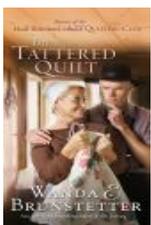

by Brunstetter, Wanda E.

Amish newlyweds Lamar and Emma Miller seek the warmer weather offered in Sarasota, Florida, and have purchased a small house in the Pinecraft community. But Emma wishes her days had more purpose than leisurely walks on the beach. Before long, she is sending back home for her supplies and advertising a quilting class.

The Tattered Quilt

by Brunstetter, Wanda E.

Tattered quilt pieces match the tattered fragments in the lives of a new patchwork group of students for Emma Miller's quilting class. Members of the patchwork group find friendship, faith, healing, and restoration while gathered around their quilts, under the Father's guiding hands, for only He can take what's ragged and shabby from the lives of His children and turn it into beauty for His glory.

Return to Whispering Pines

by Dunn, Scarlett

Adelaide Langtry may not be as beautiful as her sisters, but she has determination to spare. She'll need it if she's to succeed as a schoolteacher in her old hometown and care for the three abandoned siblings she brought from Boston. In Whispering Pines, Addie hopes to establish an orphanage, but she must also contend with her past, including her outlaw brother, Frank. Orphaned as a boy, Sheriff Jack Roper understands the turmoil faced by Addie's young charges. Though he tells himself he has all the responsibility he needs, the handsome lawman is quickly charmed by the children, and by the spirited, generous woman intent on helping them.

A Mother's Love

by Hubbard, Charlotte

For widow Rose Raber, it's been a year of tragic loss and difficult decisions. She thought providing for her young daughter was the greatest challenge she faced. Until her dying mother revealed that Rose was adopted and her birth mother is someone with much to lose if the secret comes out. As Rose struggles to reconcile the truth with her faith and her troubling curiosity, outgoing newcomer Matthias Wagler is another surprise she didn't expect. But with this second chance comes yet another revelation for all involved.

A Home for Hannah

by Lillard, Amy

In Pontotoc, Mississippi, the Amish way means a chance to rebuild, renew, and rekindle a love from long ago. Fifteen years. That's how long it's been since Hannah McLean set foot in the Amish community where she was raised. Through it all her heart has never forgotten Pontotoc or Aaron Zook, her first love. Now widowed, and left with little more than her hurting teenager and her prayers, she returns home, knowing she and her son may be turned away. When Aaron learns Hannah has returned, he nearly falls to his knees. Providence has delivered the first woman he loved, and with her, the rush of feelings they once shared.

A Love for Leah

by Lillard, Amy

Independent-minded Leah Gingerich has always been outspoken. And even though she is now a progressive Mennonite, she's rediscovering the joys of family traditions back in her Amish hometown. Yet she can't help but clash with her handsome new Amish neighbour, Jamie Stoltzfus. He's too hard-headed and old-line to see that his traumatized young nephew, Peter, needs faith and help or that a woman who stands up to him may be what he needs to heal. Holding fast to his beliefs is the only way Jamie feels he can aid Peter. But somehow, Leah's freethinking ways and feisty challenges are sparking a happiness he's never felt before.

Anna's Return

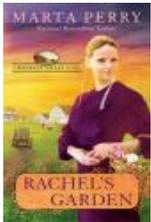

by Perry, Marta

After spending three years in the English world, Anna Beiler has come back to Pleasant Valley with a baby girl, which will surely cause a stir since Anna is unmarried. She is also hiding secrets: the baby is not hers by birth, nor does she intend to stay. Rather, she desperately needs sanctuary from the child's violent father. But Anna hasn't fully faced the consequences of her irresponsible youth, and now, her mere presence may endanger the family she holds dear. If she wants to stay, she must seek forgiveness from the community whose blessing she took for granted, and experience the true change of heart required to make a new beginning.

Rachel's Garden

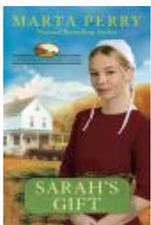

by Perry, Marta

It has been almost a year since the Amish community of Pleasant Valley lost Ezra Brand to a tragic accident. Since then, his wife Rachel has struggled to raise their three children and run their dairy farm. Rachel's friends and family have come forward to help. But all of their constant advice, however well intentioned, puts undue pressure on Rachel. And when Ezra's best friend, Gideon Zook, asks her permission to build the greenhouse that Ezra had always promised her, she finds his presence too painful a reminder of the past. Can she discover the courage to embrace new beginnings?

Sarah's Gift

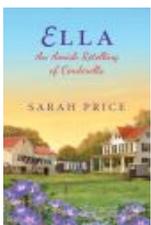

by Perry, Marta

After years in a disappointing childless marriage, and now widowed at only 26, Amish midwife Sarah Mast moves to Pleasant Valley for a fresh start. But unpleasant surprises beset Sarah when she joins her aging aunt's dwindling midwife practice. Signs of her aunt's decline suggest that she may no longer be capable of the rigorous demands of her work. Aaron Miller, Sarah's neighbour, counts himself among the skeptics until he witnesses the dedication and love she has for her patients. But when an English doctor files a complaint against Sarah, Aaron's misgivings resurface just as his own sister faces a birthing crisis.

Ella: an Amish Retelling of Cinderella

by Price, Sarah

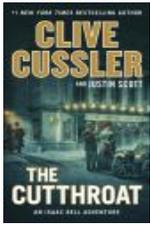

Ella Troyer strives to abide by her mother's final words, although life in the small Amish town of Echo Creek isn't always easy. Her new stepmother, Linda, treats her coldly, and her two stepsisters, Drusilla and Anna, delight in gossip and laziness. After her father's death, Ella's stepsisters are free to attend youth singings while Ella stays at home to manage the household chores, rarely seeing another soul. Until one day, while running an errand, she has a chance meeting with a young Amish man from a nearby town.

Thriller & Suspense

The Cutthroat

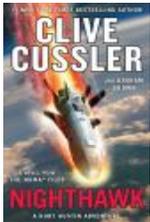

by Cussler, Clive

The year is 1911. Hired to find a young woman named Anna Pape who ran away from home to become an actress, Bell gets a shock when her murdered body turns up instead. Vowing to bring the killer to justice, he begins a manhunt which leads him into increasingly more alarming territory. Anna Pape was not alone in her fate. Petite young blonde women like Anna are being murdered in cities across America. And the patterns go beyond the physical resemblance of the victims. There are disturbing familiarities about the killings themselves that send a chill even through a man as experienced with evil as Bell.

Nighthawk

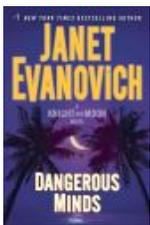

by Cussler, Clive

When the most advanced aircraft ever designed vanishes over the South Pacific, Kurt Austin and Joe Zavala are drawn into a deadly contest to locate the fallen machine. Russia and China covet the radical technology, but the U.S. worries about a darker problem. They know what others don't. The X-37 is carrying a dangerous secret, a payload of exotic matter, extracted from the upper reaches of the atmosphere and stored at a temperature near absolute zero. As long as it remains frozen, the cargo is inert, but if it thaws, it will unleash a catastrophe of nearly unthinkable proportions.

Dangerous Minds

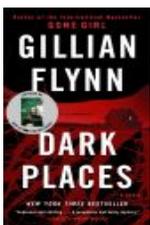

by Evanovich, Janet

Buddhist monk Wayan Bagus lost his island of solitude and wants to get it back. The island was about 200 miles north of Samoa. It had a mountain, beaches, a rainforest, and a volcano. And now it's gone. Poof! Vanished without a trace. Brilliant and boyishly charming Emerson Knight likes nothing better than solving an unsolvable, improbable mystery. And finding a missing island is better than Christmas morning in the Knight household. When clues start leading to a dark and sinister secret that is being guarded by the National Park Service, Emerson will need to assemble a crack team for help.

Dark Places

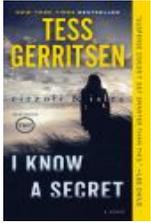

by Flynn, Gillian

Libby Day was seven when her mother and two sisters were murdered in "The Satan Sacrifice of Kinnakee, Kansas." She survived, famously testifying that her 15-year-old brother, Ben, was the killer. Twenty-five years later, Ben sits in prison and troubled Libby lives off the dregs of a trust created by well-wishers who've long forgotten her. The Kill Club is a secret society obsessed with notorious crimes. When they locate Libby and insist on Ben's innocence, she agrees for a fee to reconnect with the players from that night and report her findings and possibly admit that her testimony wasn't so solid after all.

I Know a Secret: a Rizzoli and Isles Novel

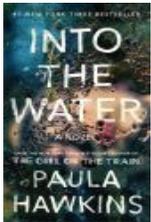

by Gerritsen, Tess

The crime scene is unlike any that Detective Rizzoli and medical examiner Maura Isles have ever before encountered. The woman lies in apparently peaceful repose on her bed, and Maura finds no apparent cause of death, but there is no doubt the woman is indeed dead. The victim's eyes have been removed and placed in the palm of her hand, a gesture that echoes the terrifying films she produces. Is a crazed movie fan re-enacting scenes from those disturbing films? When another victim is found, Jane and Maura realize the killer has widened his circle of targets.

Into The Water

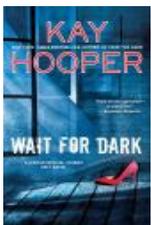

by Hawkins, Paula

In the last days before her death, Nel called her sister. Jules didn't pick up the phone, ignoring her plea for help. Now Nel is dead. They say she jumped. And Jules has been dragged back to the one place she hoped she had escaped for good, to care for the teenage girl her sister left behind.

Wait for Dark

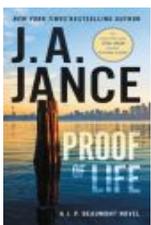

by Hooper, Kay

In Clarity, North Carolina, the residents have fallen victim to an unfortunate series of events. Seemingly random accidents have taken the lives of several citizens in the small mountain town. But these deadly coincidences are anything but coincidences. Something is on the hunt in Clarity, and the only clue as to what it is is a cryptic note given to the victims 24 hours before they meet their ends.

Proof of Life

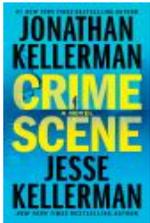

by Jance, J. A.

Before he retired, J. P. Beaumont had looked forward to having his days all to himself. But too much free time doesn't suit a man used to brushing close to danger. When his longtime nemesis, retired Seattle crime reporter Maxwell Cole, dies in what's officially deemed to be an accidental fire, Beau is astonished to be dragged into the investigation at the request of none other than the deceased victim himself. In the process, Beau learns that just because a long ago case was solved doesn't mean it's over.

Crime Scene

by Kellerman, Jonathan & Jesse

A corpse lying at the bottom of the stairs. A beautiful but troubled young woman. A brutal, decades old murder. And the man charged with making sense of it all. Clay Edison is a former star athlete turned coroner's investigator. It's his job to care for the dead and the people they leave behind. It's not his job to solve mysteries. But some cases and some people can't be resisted. What he discovers will set him on a quest to overturn a hideous injustice, no matter the consequences.

The Whispering Room : A Jane Hawk Novel

by Koontz, Dean

"Do what you were born to do. Fame will be yours." These are the words that ring in the mind of mild-mannered, beloved schoolteacher Cora Gundersun just before she takes her own life, and many others, in a shocking act of carnage. And when the disturbing contents of her secret journal are discovered, it seems certain that she must have been insane. But Jane Hawk knows better. In the wake of her husband's inexplicable suicide and the equally mysterious deaths of scores of others, Jane picks up the trail of a secret cabal of powerful players who think themselves above the law and beyond punishment.

Haunted

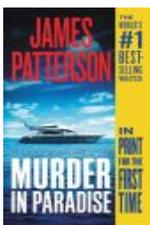

by Patterson, James

Detective Michael Bennett is ready for a vacation after a series of crises push him, and his family, to the brink. He settles in an idyllic, small town in the beautiful Maine woods, a recommendation from a former colleague. But just when Bennett thinks he can relax, he gets pulled into a case that has shocked the tight-knit community. Kids are disappearing left and right with no explanation until several bodies turn up in the woods. As Bennett investigates, he discovers that the seemingly perfect town is reeling from a deadly addiction, and the violence is about to reach a fever pitch.

Murder in Paradise

by Patterson, James

In Lawyer Lifeguard, defence lawyer Brian Lord survived the car bomb that killed his fiancée. Out of work, he takes on a lifeguard job at the beach. But there's one wave he'll never see coming. In Doctor's Plot, Abi Brenner is the new medical examiner in the Napa Valley. But her fairy tale will take a terrifying turn. In Shut-in, A woman with an uncommon allergy to the sun, watches the outside world through a flying drone as she is confined to her studio apartment. But her high-tech toy records a vicious murder.

Dead and Buried

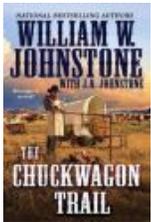

by Bryant, Tim

Wilkie John Liquorish may be a young man, but he's no greenhorn. So far in his short, hard life, he's dug graves, driven cattle, and nearly dangled from the end of a hangman's noose, no thanks to his ungentlemanly enemy, Gentleman Jack Delaney. Now Wilkie's been newly deputized as a Texas Ranger, and the real fun begins.

The Chuckwagon Trail

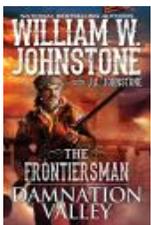

by Johnstone, William W.

Framed for murder, Dewey "Mac" McKenzie is running for his life. Though he's never even made a pot of coffee, Mac talks his way onto a cattle drive as a chuckwagon cook. Turns out he's as good with a pot and pan as he is with a gun. But trail boss Deke Northrup is one mean spit in the eye, and has soon made enemies of all the men. When Mac learns that Northrup is planning to double-cross the herd's owner, he stands up to the trail boss and his henchman. Mac is outgunned and outnumbered, but he's ready to serve up some blazing frontier justice.

Damnation Valley

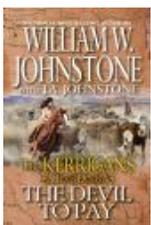

by Johnstone, William W.

A Rocky Mountain winter has left Breck reeling from the carnage unleashed by bloodthirsty trapper Judd Carnahan and readying a quest for vengeance as ruthless as their prey. It gets even deadlier when Carnahan lays siege to a trading post on the Yellowstone River. He's left the owner dead and kidnapped a pretty hostage who can turn a nice profit once he puts her to work. Following his trail takes Breck clean to Santa Fe, where Carnahan's set up a brothel bursting with hardened beauties, a saloon for cutthroats and thieves, and a trap for the Frontiersman who's tracked him every bloody step of the way.

The Devil to Pay

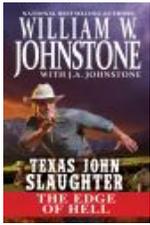

by Johnstone, William W.

It begins with a simple act of kindness and ends in a shocking night of violence. A homeless family shows up on Kate Kerrigan's doorstep, seeking refuge from a vengeful rancher's wrath. Seeing their desperation and fear, the West Texas matriarch welcomes the family into her home. But her charity turns out to be an invitation to disaster. First, the rancher and his henchmen come gunning for her houseguests. They break into Kate's mansion, they shoot her butler, brutalize her staff, and try to force themselves on Kate. Then the real slaughter begins.

The Edge of Hell

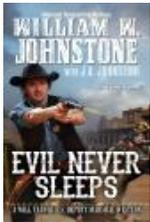

by Johnstone, William W.

A beautiful woman, a powerful Mexican rancher, and an exotic new breed of cattle come to John Slaughter's San Bernardino Valley ranch, along with the prospect of making a small fortune. While Slaughter's men are out keeping the peace in Tombstone, an act of betrayal turns up the heat under his own roof, and a killer is stalking Slaughter's wealthy Mexican guest. Indians suddenly savagely attack Slaughter's ranch, but it is only the first shot in a bigger, blazing Arizona bloodbath. The real enemy is coming next: armed to the teeth, driven by vengeance, and deep into a killing spree that only John Slaughter alone can stop.

Evil Never Sleeps

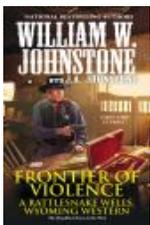

by Johnstone, William W.

He's the most notorious cattle rustler in all of Texas. His name, Jebediah Cotton, strikes fear into the hearts of every rancher in the territory. So it's more than a little strange that someone would shoot Cotton's youngest son in the back. Whoever did it is either a coward, a fool, or a crazy man. Whoever did it must die. Even if he's a U.S. deputy marshal named Will Tanner. So begins not one, but two of the deadliest manhunts in frontier history.

Frontier of Violence

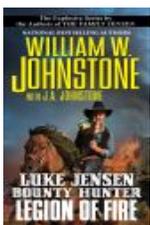

by Johnstone, William W.

An enterprising saloon owner stages a shooting contest with a matched pair of gold-plated revolvers as first prize. But some contestants don't play by the rules, and these aren't just any old gold-plated guns. Now the guns are gone, innocent hostages have been taken for a violent ride, and a chase is on into the vast Wyoming wilderness where a terrifying dark secret will be exposed, much blood will be spilled, and a fast-gun marshal will bring the real outlaws to their knees.

Legion of Fire

by Johnstone, William W.

When Luke Jensen traps fugitive Ben Craddock in Arapaho Springs, he's ready to collect on his bounty. But the job's not done not by a long shot. A raid by a savage gang known as the Legion of Fire has left the peaceful settlement looted, burned to the ground, and the ashes scoured for female hostages, including the marshal's daughter. For Luke, this is more than a hunt. It's now a rescue. And with Craddock busted out of jail and thrown in with the gang, it's also revenge. Wrangling a small posse, Luke heads for the Legion's hideout in the Kansas badlands.

These Violent Times

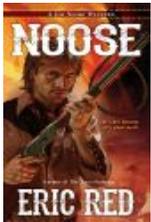

by Joyner, C. Courtney

Even in the darkest days of the Civil War, Dr. John “Shotgun” Bishop never saw anything like the deadly plague sweeping through the Cheyenne nation. Diseased corpses dumped in the wells of the Great Plains. Women and children bombarded with infected blood during midnight raids. This is the new scourge of germ warfare, and it’s threatening to wipe out thousands of innocent lives. With the fierce and beautiful White Fox by his side, Bishop tears a violent swath in search of the terrorists responsible for a horror that’s spreading like a prairie wild fire.

Noose

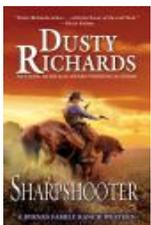

by Red, Eric

In the cutthroat world of bounty hunters, Joe Noose is as honest as they come. Which isn’t saying much. Just look at his less-than-honest colleagues. They framed Joe for a murder they committed. They made sure Joe’s face wound up on a wanted poster. Now they’re gonna hunt Joe down and collect the reward money. There’s just one problem: Joe Noose thinks it’s his bounty. It’s his reward. And it’s their funeral.

Sharpshooter

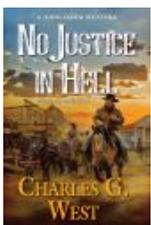

by Richards, Dusty

The final book in the Byrnes Family Ranch series. When a new railroad route is planned to pass through Navajo territory, Chet fights to get the Indians a contract to supply the locomotives with coal. But the corrupt politicians in Tucson and D.C. have other ideas. The coal contract means millions, and the ruthless Tucson Ring will do anything to get it, even if it means killing a U.S. marshal. Battling bandits, the railroad, and a corrupt gang of millionaires, Chet won’t back down until the desert is painted red with blood.

No Justice in Hell

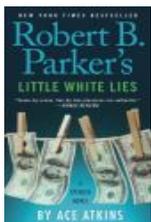

by West, Charles G.

Three desperate women. One deranged killer. No way in hell is John Hawk going to sit back and let the innocent get slaughtered. He first meets the three lovely ladies as they’re fleeing in a wagon alone through Blackfoot country. What’s their rush? They’re being pursued by a wanted outlaw who wants them dead. Their only chance is to reach the Last Chance Saloon in Helena and John Hawk is their last hope. Hawk can track down a low-life like nobody’s business. There’s just one problem: the outlaw got there first.

Robert B. Parker's Little White Lies

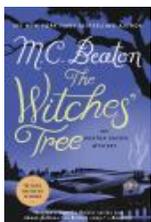

by Atkins, Ace

Connie Kelly thought she'd found her perfect man on an online dating site. He was silver-haired and handsome, with a mysterious background working for the CIA. She fell so hard for M. Brooks Welles that she wrote him a check for almost $300,000 hoping for a big return on her investment. But within weeks, both Welles and her money are gone. A self-proclaimed military hotshot, Welles had been a frequent guest on national news shows. But when he disappears, he leaves not only a jilted lover but a growing list of angry investors, duped cops, and a team of paramilitary contractors looking for revenge.

The Witches' Tree : An Agatha Raisin Mystery

by Beaton, M. C.

Cotswolds inhabitants are used to inclement weather, but the night sky is especially foggy as Rory and Molly Devere, the new vicar and his wife, drive slowly home from a dinner party in their village of Sumpton Harcourt. They strain to see the road ahead and then suddenly brake, screeching to a halt. Right in front of them, aglow in the headlights, a body hangs from a gnarled tree at the edge of town. Margaret Darby, an elderly spinster, has been murdered and the villagers are bewildered as to who would commit such a crime.

All by Myself, Alone

by Clark, Mary Higgins

Fleeing a disastrous and humiliating arrest of her husband-to-be on the eve of their wedding, Celia Kilbride, a gems and jewellery expert, hopes to escape from public attention by lecturing on a brand new cruise ship. On board she meets 86-year-old Lady Emily Haywood. Immensely wealthy, Lady Em is the owner of a priceless emerald necklace that she intends to leave to the Smithsonian after the cruise. Three days out to sea Lady Em is found dead and the necklace is missing. Celia sets out to find the killer, not realizing that she has put herself in mortal danger before the ship reaches its final destination.

Deadfall

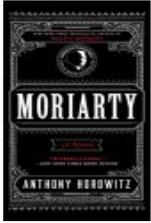

by Fairstein, Linda

The Wildlife Conservation Society works to preserve and protect the animal kingdom both within and beyond the borders of the five boroughs. But dangerous creatures don't always have claws and fangs, as Assistant DA Alexandra Cooper and NYPD detectives Mike Chapman and Mercer Wallace know all too well. Predators lurk close to home, and in the aftermath of the shocking drive-by murder of an important city employee, someone Alex has worked with for years. The trio must discover who the bigger snake is: the killer or the victim.

Moriarty : A Novel

by Horowitz, Anthony

Days after the encounter at the Swiss waterfall, Pinkerton detective agent Frederick Chase arrives in Europe from New York. Moriarty's death has left an immediate, poisonous vacuum in the criminal underworld, and there is no shortage of candidates to take his place, including one particularly fiendish criminal mastermind. Chase and Scotland Yard Inspector Athelney Jones must forge a path through the darkest corners of England's capital in pursuit of this sinister figure, a man much feared but seldom seen, who is determined to stake his claim as Moriarty's successor.

The Color of Fear

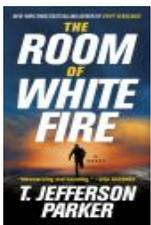

by Muller, Marcia

A knock on the door in the middle of the night. It can only be bad news, and it is: Sharon's father Elwood has been the victim of a vicious, racially-motivated attack. A nationally recognized Shoshone Indian artist, he'd been visiting Sharon for the holidays, browsing for gifts in San Francisco's exclusive Marina district when he was set upon by a mob of angry young men. Now, Elwood lies in a coma, hovering between life and death. With little progress on the investigation from the overworked, short-handed police, Sharon resolves to track down Elwood's attackers and bring them to justice herself.

The Room of White Fire

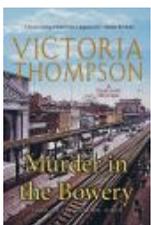

by Parker, T. Jefferson

Roland Ford, once a cop, then a Marine, now a private investigator, is good at finding people. But when he's asked to locate Air Force veteran Clay Hickman, he realizes he's been drawn into something deep and dark. He knows the weight of war, having served as a Marine in First Fallujah; he also knows the nightmare of indescribable personal pain, as only two years have passed since his young wife's sudden death. What he doesn't know is why a shroud of secrecy hangs over the disappearance of Clay Hickman and why he's getting a different story from everyone involved.

Murder in the Bowery

by Thompson, Victoria

Frank Malloy is back and reeling when his latest client, Will, starts to look suspicious after his newsboy brother, Freddie, is found dead. An apprehensive Frank tracks down Will, who spins a tale of lust and deceit involving young society woman Estelle Longacre. All fingers point to Estelle and her risky behaviour as Freddie's murderer, but Frank can't be sure if the company she kept is to blame, or if her own ruthless family had a hand in his death. Frank will need Sarah's help to discover if there is a connection between Estelle and Freddie's death. Together they must navigate an underground web of treachery to find answers.

Mangrove Lightning

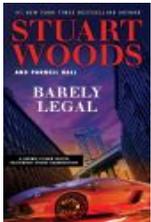

by White, Randy Wayne

A legendary charter captain and guide named Tootsie Barlow has come to Doc Ford, muttering about a curse. The members of his extended family have suffered a bizarre series of attacks, and Barlow's convinced it has something to do with a multiple murder in 1925, in which his family had a shameful part. Ford doesn't believe in curses, but as he and Tomlinson begin to investigate, following the trail of the attacks from Key Largo to Tallahassee, they, too, suffer a series of near-fatal mishaps. Is it really a curse or just a crime spree?

Barely Legal

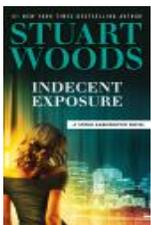

by Woods, Stuart

In the newest, non-stop adventure from New York Times best-selling author Stuart Woods, the protege will become the hero: Now is the time of Herbie Fisher. Under the tutelage of Stone Barrington, Herbie Fisher has transformed from a bumbling sad sack into a capable man about town and the youngest partner at the white-shoe law firm Woodman & Weld. Now all of his training will be put to the test as he finds himself embroiled in his most daring adventure to date.

Indecent Exposure

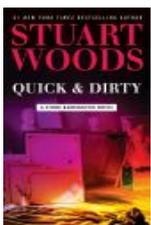

by Woods, Stuart

As an eligible bachelor, man-about-town, and mover in the highest social echelons, Stone Barrington has always been the subject of interest and gossip. But when he's unwittingly thrust into the limelight, he finds himself scrambling to take cover. Before too long, Stone's fending off pesky nuisances left and right, and making personal arrangements so surreptitiously it would take a covert operative to unearth them.

Quick and Dirty

by Woods, Stuart

When a slam bang of a crime brings a beautiful, new client into Stone Barrington's office, little does he know his association with her will pull him into a far more serpentine mystery in the exclusive world of art. It's a business where a rare find could make a career and a collection, and mistakes in judgment are costly. And under its genteel and high-minded veneer lurks an assortment of grifters and malfeasants eager to cash in on the game. It will take a man of Stone Barrington's careful discernment and well-honed instincts to get to the truth without ruffling the wrong feathers.
